I just got word that Tom, W7CYA, # 1373, from Stayton became a silent key late this morning, 5/27/2016.

He had a few really peaceful days at the end, surrounded by family and friends. He wanted all the hams he knew and visited with over the years to know that he cherished your friendship.

THE K-BAR-A POT LUCK PICNIC DATE AND PLACE HAS BEEN CHANGED. THE EVENT WILL TAKE PLACE ON SUNDAY JULY 10 AT WIARD PARK IN KLAMATH FALLS. THE PICNIC WILL RUN FROM 11 AM TO 5 PM. Thanks to Ruth K7RFO for this updated information.

JUNE 19—CONGRATULATIONS TO BOB (PURK) PURKHISER ON HIS 90TH BRITHDAY!!! PURK LIVES IN KLAMATH FALLS AND HAS BEEN CHECKING INTO THE NET FOREVER, HIS CALL, K7JIX.

SWIM FOR IT July 25, I joined a old school chum and we went fishing off the bank at Lofton Reservoir. Lofton is in the mts. Above Bly, Oregon, at about 62 hundred feet. I had worked my way down the bank with my fishing gear and my easy chair, and I set down to enjoy the day. I had caught 3 nice trout, each around 12 inches. My friend had caught one that was almost 19 inches long. About that time I watched an older man, perhaps in his middle 60's, launch his small boat. I was fishing near the launch. The man loaded in his fishing gear, his electric motor and it's solar voltage supply, and moved out about 60 feet in front of where I was fishing. He put his pole in the water, and soon caught a fish. He leaned over the boat to get the fish, the boat capsized, and down he went! After the boat turned completely over, he was able to hang on to it, and keep it and himself afloat. He had family near by who came into the water to help him out. He lost his motor, his solar supply, and all his fishing gear, and on top of that, a bird came down to the water where his fish was still secured to a line, and stole the fish. The water was deep, and well over the man's head but he was alright after he got out. His wife told me that they had spent over a thousand dollars for the motor and solar supply. They were still trying to find it when I left. It was the first time he had used this boat for fishing. I bet he wished he had stayed home. I have had bad fishing days, but not like his. (ed)
